PRESS RELEASE

BURGLARY OF HABITATION / RESISTING ARREST

FRIDAY MARCH 29, 2013

On Thursday March 28, 2013, at approximately 9:48 am, San Benito Police Officers responded to a residence located on the 600 block of Charlotte Street in reference to a burglary in progress. The Officers arrived and observed a broken window to a residence as well as electronics outside the residence, but no subjects were located. Witnesses provided information on the alleged suspect, and several minutes later a Police Officer located a subject matching the description by the intersection of Carlos and Elva Streets. The subject is 24 year old Juan Balderas out of San Benito, who was found in possession of evidence linking him to the burglary. The Officers arrested Mr. Balderas for burglary of habitation and loaded him into a patrol unit. During the transport to the City Jail Mr. Balderas became combative and broke the rear window to the patrol unit by kicking it, and attempted to escape custody. Mr. Balderas struggled with the Officers for a few minutes but they gained control of him and secured him in a patrol unit and taken to City Jail. Resisting arrest and criminal mischief charges were added to Mr. Balderas Burglary Charge. Municipal Judge Ben Yudesis arraigned Mr. Balderas and set bonds totaling $65,000. Mr. Balderas is currently at the Cameron County Jail.
