PRESS RELEASE

THEFT-STATE JAIL FELONY

THURSDAY MARCH 28, 2013

On Wednesday March 27, 2013, at approximately 11:00 pm, San Benito Police officers responded to the HEB store located on the 1000 block of west Business 77 in reference to a couple wanted in connection with a series of shoplifting incidents at that location. When the Officers arrived, they made contact with the stores' loss prevention team who stated that they had detained Ana Laura Rojas-Castillo and her husband Genaro Castillo both out of Edinburg. The two were detained while they were attempting to take merchandise from inside the store without paying for it. The couple was positively identified, as the suspects in two incidents in which they are accused of taking cosmetic products as well as personal hygiene items totaling over $6,000. The couple is also suspected of targeting different stores throughout Cameron and Hidalgo County. Genaro Castillo and Ana Laura Rojas-Castillo were taken into custody, and transported to City Jail. Municipal Judge Ben Yudesis arraigned both on two counts of State Jail felony Theft and set bonds at $40,000 each.

Authority to release: Detective Rogelio Banda Jr. # 124
