PRESS RELEASE

TERRORISTIC THREAT OF FAMILY/HOUSEHOLD

FRIDAY MARCH 1, 2013

On Thursday February 28, 2013 at 06:10pm, Officers were dispatched to the 24000 block of Sage Circle in reference to a male threatening a female with a knife. Upon arrival the Officer made contact with the female victim, who stated her Ex-husband, identified as 64 year old Victor Tolentino, came into her residence upset because a male contract worker was outside her home measuring the property. He accused her of having sexual relations with the male contractor and stormed into the home with a knife and began cutting the walls in an up and down motion. He pointed the knife at her and told her he was going to kill her with the knife he was holding. Mr. Tolentino then approached her with the knife in his hand and placed it on her abdomen over her clothing and told her he was going to kill her. Mr. Tolentino ran out of the residence after the female began yelling for her adult son who was outside. He left the area in a Grey PT Cruiser and was later located just a few houses away. Mr. Tolentino was placed under arrest and transported to the city jail. He was arraigned by Judge Benjamin Yudesis who issued an Emergency Protection Order and set bond at $9,000 dollars.
