FRIDAY FEBRUARY 8, 2013

On Thursday February 7, 2013 at 09:50pm, Officers responded to the 2300 block of De La Rosa Drive in San Benito in reference to an assault that had occurred. Officers made contact with a 32 year old female victim who advised her husband identified as 32 year old Antonio Aguirre Hernandez Jr. and her two children were going home after a family gathering. The family was in their beige Ford F-150 and turned into Joines Rd. Mr. Hernandez got upset because he wanted her to drive him to the store to buy more beer. Hernandez abruptly grabbed the steering wheel yelling at her for the beer. She was able to control the vehicle and stopped on the side of the road to prevent the vehicle from crashing. Hernandez began to punch her with a closed fist on the right side of her face, cheek and hit her on the right side of her ribs with a beer bottle while their two children sat in the backseat. The two children were screaming and exited the vehicle almost getting struck by a passerby and ran to a nearby relative's house. Hernandez fled the area before officers arrived and was seen shortly after walking behind the residence. When Hernandez saw the police, he laid facedown and crawled under a house. After several commands to get out from under the house, Hernandez was pulled out. He refused to place his hands behind his back. After several minutes of Hernandez resisting, Officers were able to handcuff him and they continued to struggle to place him in a patrol unit. He was transported to the station and placed in the city jail. He was arraigned by Judge Benjamin Yudesis and an Emergency Protective Order was issued and bond was set at $60,000 dollars.
