On Wednesday February 06, 2013 at 06:56pm a Patrol Officer was dispatched to the 100 block of N. Colorado in reference to a male who was identified as 27 year old Randy Daniel Cruz on their property. Officers made contact with the female caller who advised there was a male that would not leave their property after being told several times by the female caller and her father. Before police arrived he left the area. She filed the report for criminal trespass. At 10:02pm Officers were called back out to the same location in reference to the same call and officers found the male standing in the front yard staring at the front of the house. Officers detained the male and made contact with the female caller. She stated he had been banging on the front door for several minutes and went to the side of the residence and began knocking on the bedroom window. She advised she wanted to file charges on him for criminal trespass and phone harassment. Mr. Cruz had made 70 phone calls and 20 text messages to the female which one of the text messages made her fear for her safety due to the message stating he didn't care if he went to jail; he was going to make it for a good reason.
