PRESS RELEASE

POSSESSION OF MARIJUANA / DRUG PARAPHERNALIA

WEDNESDAY JANUARY 9, 2013

On Tuesday January 8, 2013, at 2:33 pm. San Benito Police responded to the area of Oscar Williams Rd and Business 77 in reference to a reckless driver traveling in a dark blue Dodge Stratus. A few moments later a Police Officer observed a vehicle matching the description who then conducted a traffic stop on said vehicle after observing a moving violation. The Officer then made contact with the driver, who was identified as 30 year old Adrian Juarez, who was accompanied by a female passenger identified as 30 year old Erica Monique Trujillo both from San Benito. The Police Officer then obtained consent to search the vehicle from the driver, and discovered drug paraphernalia as well as a usable amount of a green leafy substance with all the characteristics of Marijuana inside the vehicle. Adrian Juarez and Erica Trujillo were then placed under arrest for possession of marijuana class B misdemeanor and possession of drug paraphernalia, and were taken to City Jail where Municipal Judge David Garza arraigned them and set bonds on both suspects at $1,000 Dollars.
