TUESDAY JANUARY 8, 2012

On Friday January 4th, 2012, at 06:10 am. San Benito Police responded to a residence located on the 500 Block of Chapman Street in reference to a domestic disturbance between a male and female. When the Police Officers arrived they made contact with a 25 year old female who stated that her soon to be ex-husband, who she identified as 28 year old Miguel Angel Salinas, had broken into her house thru a window while she was asleep. She had tried to call 911 but her ex-husband pulled her by the hair, and took her phone away. According to the female, Miguel Salinas moved out of the house more than a month ago, and was living somewhere else. Miguel Angel Salinas was placed under arrest for burglary of habitation as well as interference with an emergency call, and taken to City Jail where he was later arraigned by Municipal Judge David Garza who set bonds totaling $15,000, and issued an emergency protective order against Miguel Salinas on behalf of the victim.
