PRESS RELEASE

BURGLARY OF HABITATION / THEFT OF SERVICE

FRIDAY DECEMBER 21, 2012

On Wednesday December 19, 2012, at 5:15 pm. San Benito Police responded to a residence located on the 800 block of South Bowie in reference to a an unwanted female at location. When the Officers arrived they made contact with the residents who stated that a female wearing a red blouse and shorts had walked into their house asking for "Andy". According to the complaints a resident confronted the female suspect and pushed the resident, and then left the house. Police Officers then searched the area, and located a female matching the description given over by Sam Houston and Cash Street intersection. The female was identified as 35 year old Eliza Torres out of San Benito who was later identified as the female who had entered the house without the owner's consent. Eliza Torres was then placed under arrest for Burglary of Habitation, and taken to City Jail where she was arraigned by Municipal Judge Ben Yudesis who issued a $2,000 Personal recognizance bond.

On Wednesday December 19, 2012 at 2:40 pm. 22 year old Cristina Davila out of San Benito arrived at the Police station to turn herself in after discovering that she had a warrant for theft of service class A misdemeanor filed by Flexi Compras. According to documents provided by the appliance company Cristina Davila purchased a Galaxy tablet, and signed a contract to make payments on the item on September of 2012. Cristina Davila failed to make payments, and pawned the tablet that was later recovered by Police detectives. Cristina Davila was arraigned by Municipal Judge Ben Yudesis who set bond at $2,000.
