PRESS RELEASE

ASSAULT CLASS A / POSSESSION OF CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE

MONDAY OCTOBER 29, 2012

On Sunday October 28, 2012, at 02:12 am, San Benito Police Officers responded to the parking lot of a bar located on the 700 Block of South Sam Houston Boulevard in reference to a fight in progress. Upon the Police Officers arrival they made contact with the occupants of a white Buick 4 door sedan trying to leave the parking lot. All occupants were identified, and the Police officers were able to establish that the group had been involved in a fight with others at the parking lot. The investigation revealed that 27 year old Nelda Aguilar had assaulted a 22 year old female as well as a 21 year old male. During the course of the assault other participants joined the altercation. The Police Officers then placed Nelda Aguilar under arrest for two counts of assault, as well as having numerous traffic warrants from Municipal Court totaling $ 3,417 Dollars. Nelda Aguilar was then taken to City Jail where upon arrival an inventory of her belongings was conducted, and a total of 52 Alprazolam pills were found in her possession. Nelda Aguilar was then charged with possession of controlled substance penalty group 3. Female was later arraigned by Municipal Judge David Garza who set bonds totaling $17,000 Dollars.
