PRESS RELEASE

ABANDONING OR ENDANGERING A CHILD

THURSDAY OCTOBER 11, 2012

On Wednesday October 10, 2012, at 7:29 PM, San Benito Police Officers responded to the HEB store located on the 1000 Block of West Business 77 in reference to a child left unattended inside a vehicle called in by a concerned citizen. Upon the Police Officers arrival they made contact with the reporting person who pointed out a green 1997 GMC Jimmy SUV parked with an unrestrained 2 year old boy inside who was crying, and asking for his father. The Police Officer and Security guard check the doors and found the rear driver side door unlocked and the child was removed. According to the witness the child had been left unattended for almost 20 minutes. A police Officer proceeded to check inside the store, and located the father who was identified as 34 year old Frank Jason Jalomo out of San Benito. According to Frank Jalomo he had gone inside the store to buy some things. Frank Jalomo was then placed under arrest for abandoning or endangering a child and taken to City Jail. The mother of the child arrived at location, and took custody of the child. Frank Jason Jalomo was arraigned by Municipal Judge David Garza who set bond at $3,000 Dollars. Child Protective Services was notified, and are currently investigating the incident.
