AGGRAVATED ASSAULT WITH A WEAPON

SUNDAY SEPTEMBER 2ND, 2012

On Sunday September 2nd, 2012, at 02:53 am, a San Benito Police Officer checked out with a white Chevrolet Equinox SUV by the 1100 Block of North McCullough that was improperly parked. It was being operated by a female driver identified as 31 year old Adelina Perez Martinez out of San Benito. As the Officer was talking to the driver he could hear someone asking for help on the side of road. The Officer then discovered a 35 year old Hispanic male with an injury to his right leg that required immediate medical attention. The male subject advised the Officer that the female driver was his wife and that she ran him over twice with the SUV over a domestic dispute. The male subject was transported to VBMC via ambulance where he remains in critical condition. As a result of the assault the victim's right foot had to be amputated. Adelina Perez Martinez was then placed under arrest, and charged with two counts of aggravated assault with a deadly weapon. She was taken to the City Jail where she was later arraigned by Municipal Judge Adolfo Cordova who set bonds at $150,000. Adelina Perez Martinez was taken to the Cameron County Jail.
