PRESS RELEASE

ASSAULT AGAINST DISABLED PERSON

SATURDAY JULY 28, 2012

On Saturday July 27, 2012, at 10:52 pm. San Benito Police responded to the 1200 Block of Alamo Street in reference to an assault. Upon the Police Officers arrival they made contact with a 52 year old female who stated that a male subject who she identified as 32 year old Daniel Prieto out of San Benito had arrived at her residence searching for the subject's 25 year old girlfriend. The 52 year old female then asked Daniel Prieto to leave, and that's when Daniel Prieto became upset and struck the 52 year old female victim on her right side of her head causing pain. Female victim advised the Officers that she was disabled and wanted to file criminal charges on her assailant who had fled before the Officers arrival. The Police Officers proceeded to search the area, and located the alleged suspect walking by the 300 block South Mccoullough Street. Daniel Prieto was then placed under arrest for Assault against a disabled person, and transported to City Jail where he was arraigned by Municipal Judge David Garza who set bond at $5,000. Dollars.
