PRESS RELEASE

BEE ATTACK

On Thursday July 26, 2012, at 2:17 pm. San Benito Police responded to the 100 block of Lake View North in reference bee call. Upon the Police Officers arrival they made contact with a 60 year old female resident who stated that her 88 father had been attacked by bees while crushing cans at her residence. According to the female her father after being attacked drove himself to his residence located by the 400 Block of East Expressway where EMS was then called, and transported to Harlingen Medical Center. According to medical personnel the victim was stung more than 500 times, and is expected to recover. San Benito Fire Department responded to the residence, and handled the bees.
