PRESS RELEASE

AGGRAVATED ASSAULT

FRIDAY JULY 20, 2012

On Thursday July 19, 2012, at approximately 9:32 PM. San Benito Police responded to a residence located by the 100 Block of Cash Street in reference to a domestic disturbance in progress. The police officers arrived and made contact with a female who advised the Officers that two men were fighting inside the house. The Officers then made contact with a 54 year old male, later identified as the victim, who had sustained a laceration to the top of his head apparently caused with a beer bottle. The Officers then established that the suspect was 48 year old Wotzbely Martinez out of San Antonio. Based on the information obtained from members of the household the alleged suspect at one point lower his pants, and exposed his genitals to a an adult female member of the household, and the victim confronted the suspect regarding the suspect's actions. During the argument, the suspect then struck the victim with the beer bottle. The victim then engaged the suspect in a physical altercation causing some defensive injuries to the suspect. Wotzbey Martinez was arrested and later transported to VBMC to receive medical attention. Wotzbely Martinez was arraigned by Municipal Judge Ben Yudesis on a second degree aggravated assault with deadly weapon charge and set bond on the defendant at $15,000. Suspect was transported to the Cameron County Jail.
