PRESS RELEASE

AGGRAVATED ROBBERY-1ST DEGREE FELONY

WEDNESDAY JULY 4TH, 2012

On Wednesday July 4th, 2012 at 12:38 am, San Benito Police responded to a robbery in progress at a game room located by the intersection of Travis and West Batts. Upon the Police Officers arrival they were advised that two suspects had robbed the attendant at gunpoint, and the suspects had fled on foot running east on Batts Street. The Police Officers then searched the immediate area, and they were able to locate two male subjects hiding by a car that was parked by a Hotel located on the 200 block of East Stenger. The subjects identified themselves as 18 year old Angel Quiroz and 19 year old Andrew Meza from San Benito. Both subjects were taken into custody and evidence taken from the game room was located at the scene. The suspects were then transported to the San Benito City Jail where a witness identified the subjects mentioned above as the suspects. Angel Quiroz and Andrew Meza were charged with first degree Aggravated Robbery. Andrew Meza was also charged with possession of controlled substance group 3 after several pills were found in his possession as well as criminal mischief after the subject destroyed a video camera from inside his holding cell. Angel Quiroz and Andrew Meza were arraigned by Municipal Judge David Garza who set bond on Angel Quiroz at $50,000 while Andrew Meza received $60,000 in bonds.
