PRESS RELEASE

ASSAULT CLASS A FAMILY VIOLENCE

TUESDAY JUNE 26, 2012

On Saturday June 23, 2012, at 6:54 PM a 21 year old female arrived at the Police Station crying, and advised the Police Officers that she had just been assaulted by her boyfriend. She identified as 23 year old Gilberto Martinez out of San Benito. According to the victim she was driving while her boyfriend was riding in the back seat with their daughters when they both began to argue, and at one point the subject began to punch her in the face causing redness and swelling to her right side of her face as well an injury to her mouth. According to the victim, she then stopped by the intersection of Business 77 and North Oscar Williams road, and told Gilberto Martinez to get out. The victim stated that when her boyfriend got out she immediately drove to the Police station, while the boyfriend ran south on Williams road. Several Police units were then dispatched to look for the boyfriend who was found hiding in a Laundromat by the intersection of Gild Drive and Williams Road. Gilberto Martinez was then placed under arrest and transported to the police station where he was booked on charges of Assault family violence class A misdemeanor. Municipal Judge Adolfo Cordova arraigned set bond at $2,500. Female victim refused medical attention.
