PRESS RELEASE

On 04-28-2012 at 04:07pm, San Benito Police Officers responded to Wal-Mart for a possible shoplifter. The Officers arrived and encountered the Home & Garden Department clerk who had detained a shoplifter. The clerk explained that this male had taken off the tags of a BMX bike and attempted to flee the store while riding out on the bike.

The Department clerk witnessed the subject committing the theft and stood in front of the bike to block his pathway. The male had also taken a black backpack that had stolen assorted items which were also from the store. He is identified as Marco Valencia 11-18-1991. The total value of the theft was $275.97.

The subject was taken into custody and transported to the station without incident. He is being charged with Theft Class B Misdemeanor. He bond was set at $2,500.00 by Municipal Judge A. Cordova.
