PRESS RELEASE

RESIST ARREST OR TRANSPORTATION, FAILURE TO IDENTIFY, RECKLESS DAMAGE, PUBLIC INTOXICATION

THURSDAY SEPTEMBER 5, 2013

On Wednesday September 4, 2013 at 08:29am Officers were called to the 100 block of Gil Dr. in reference to a male who was trying to break into an apartment. The screams of a female could be heard in the back ground of the call. When the Officer arrived he noticed a door to an apartment damaged. As he made contact with the female victim the male was not at location. When the Officer was gathering the information from the victim the male walked up to the apartment. Another officer who was at the location stopped the male and asked for I.D. The male was swaying back and forth and his eyes were blood shot. He showed signs of being intoxicated under some substance. The male refused to give his information and was told he was under arrest. When Officer placed his left wrist in hand cuffs he started to pull away from the officer. The Officer finally handcuffed the male who was later identified as 25 year old Jesse Abiel Gomez. Gomez refused to get into the back seat of the police unit and was forced by officers. He was placed under arrest for Reckless Damage, Failure to Identify, Public Intoxication and Resist Arrest and or Transport. He was arraigned by Judge Benjamin Yudesis and bond was set at $3,500 dollars for the Resist Arrest and or Transportation and fines totaling $615 dollars.
