On Tuesday February 3rd, 2015, at 12:45 am, San Benito Police Officers responded to an apartment located on the 800 Block of West Robertson in reference to a verbal dispute between a male and a female. When the Officers arrived they made contact with a 31 year old female who stated that earlier her common law husband, 34 year old Mario Netro, had arrived drunk to the apartment, and after getting involved in an argument the male subject got the female's cell phone, and started searching its contents. According to the female Mario Netro then pulled out a knife, and attempted to stab her. The victim managed to escape the house and called 911 from a neighboring home. When the Officers were searching the apartment the female victim advised the officer that the suspect had taken her cell phone, and her wallet containing over $300 Dollars. As the officers continued searching the area a patrol officer observed the suspect behind the apartment, and ran from the officers but was caught several blocks away. Suspect resisted arrest, and was charged with Aggravated Robbery, Evading arrest on foot and resisting arrest. Mr. Netro was taken to City Jail where he was arraigned by Municipal Judge Ben Yudesis and bonds set totaling $70,000. Items taken from the victim were recovered and returned.
