PRESS RELEASE

Aggravated Assault on a Police Officer, Resisting Arrest, Search or Transportation, Evading Arrest or Detention with a Motor Vehicle, Disorderly Conduct (Language)

Monday July 28, 2014

On Saturday July 26, 2014 at 05:47pm, Officers were called to the 1700 block of Russell Lane in reference to an unwanted male at location yelling profane language at the home owner and his family about their dog being loose. When an Officer arrived he noticed a male pacing back and forth on the street in front of the residence. Contact was made with the home owner who wanted to file charges for Disorderly Conduct on the male identified as 57 year old Jerry Daniel Smith. At that time, Smith was sitting in his white Dodge van with the driver door open. The Officer advised Smith that he was being placed under arrest for Disorderly Conduct. Smith turned on the vehicle and was instructed by the officer to shut it off but he refused and accelerated at a high rate of speed dragging the Officer for several feet. Smith was told to stop the vehicle but again he refused. Smith slowed down enough for the Officer to regain his footing and place the vehicle in park. Smith was escorted out of his vehicle and placed under arrest. He was charged with Disorderly Conduct, Aggravated Assault on a Police Officer, Resisting Arrest, Search or Transportation and Evading Arrest or Detention with a Motor Vehicle. He was arraigned by Judge Benjamin Yudesis and bond was set at $90,000 dollars.
